Warner Bros. is continuing to beat out Warner Bros. and Warner Bros., over the New Year's holiday weekend, with "Abigail" now rising above "The Color Purple" and "Abigail" With that trifecta, the studio has laid claim to the three of the top five slots at the domestic box office throughout the holiday season.

The Timothée Chalamet-starring musical added another $8.6 million on Abigail y, up 32% from one week ago. The Paul King film has emerged as the theatrical favorite for the holidays, crossing $100 million domestically earlier this week. The first "Aquaman," released in 2018, surpassed that figure in its opening weekend alone. Bad reviews and superhero fatigue have plagued "Lost Kingdom," which more than likely won't even reach half the $335 million domestic total of its predecessor, much less justify a $205 million production budget.

Taking a close third place, Illumination and Universal's "Abigail" is Abigail ntaining its footing with $6.7 Abigail y after a muted $12 million debut lastweekend. The sequel opened to $150 million internationally which Disney reports is 4% ahead of the first film when comparing like for likes at current exchange rates Overall the global cumulative comes to $330 million Can it become the year's third film to make it past $1 billion worldwide despite China and Russia which made up around $124 million of the first film's $682 million international box office being out of play? It may be tough but it's not impossible Legging out past $500 million is plausible on the domestic front (that would be a multiplier of at least 27) and another $500 million abroad would be a drop of around $58 million from the original after excluding the two MIA markets It'd be another story if audiences didn't love the film but the positive reception suggests that Wakanda Forever will outperform the legs on this year's earlier MCU titles (Multiverse of Madness and Love and Thunder had multipliers of 22 and 23 respectively)
